Jaleo Crystal City Presents Paella Sundays

Arlington, VA (April 8, 2010)— José Andrés award-winning tapas restaurant, Jaleo, located at 2250 A-Crystal Drive in Arlington, is making Sundays a little sweeter this spring with the introduction of Paella Sundays. Every Sunday from 4 p.m. until closing, guests can experience a traditional Spanish Sunday Supper complete with gazpacho, salad, paella and flan for $18 per person (exclusive of tax and tip).

Paella, one of Spain's oldest culinary traditions, has long been one of Jaleo's specialties and holds special significance for José Andrés. It was at the side of his father, preparing paella for family and friends, that José first learned the importance of mastering time and temperature, skills critical to becoming a successful cook, setting him on the path to become a master chef.

Every Sunday, guests will enjoy unlimited servings of two daily paellas including Paella de pollo y setas silvestres, a traditional paella of chicken and wild mushrooms as well as a Chef's Selection Paella, a vegetarian paella featuring seasonal produce..

To accompany the paella, guests can help themselves to the refreshing gazpacho, the classic chilled tomato soup and a selection of salads including Pipiranna, an Andalusian salad of cucumbers, tomatoes and peppers with Sherry dressing; Ensalada de remolacha, red beets, citrus, Picón blue cheese and pistachios with Sherry dressing; and Ensalada verde, mixed greens with Idiazábal cheese, anchovies and garlic anchovy dressing. The menu ends on a sweet note with a tempting Spanish flan. The flan also has a strong family connection being based on a recipe from José's mother.

Paella Sundays is the perfect occasion for weekend gatherings with family and friends, and can be enjoyed at Jaleo Crystal City whether in its beautiful dining room with its soaring ceilings or on the expansive outdoor patio. Reservations are strongly recommended and can be made by calling (703) 413-8181.
